Gentlemen:

Mr. Vernon Green of the Baltimore Elite Giants Baseball Club has a complaint from Mrs. Effie Manley of the Newark, N.J. Eagles that a series of three games played here between the Giants and Eagles had not been reported.

The games in question were played August 5 and 6 respectively.

As official scorer for the Baltimore Elite Giants for the season just closed, I have duplicate copies of these games which were mailed from Mr. Green's office on Sunday night, August 6.

Prior to Mrs. Manley's second letter, she had informed Mr. Green of a reminder from your office that these games had not been received by you. I immediately forwarded you a duplicate by Special Delivery, yet, Mrs. Manley's record does not show that you have advised her of receiving the score sheets, resulting in a fine being levied against the Baltimore Elite Giants management.

Since my position was official with the Baltimore Elite Giants management, I am entitled to know whether or not these reports were received by your office, which has never shown me the courtesy of replying to any of my inquiries.

Now, again, if you haven't the results of these games, which I have sent you twice, advise me immediately in order that I might send the third set, which I hope do not get "lost" in the mails or your office, and to clear up an embarrassing situation.

Copies of this letter are being sent to Mrs. Manley and Mr. Green for their files.

I am sure that if you are cooperating with the League you will advise me as well as Mrs. Manley relative to the above, and I might add, if your records are not straight, mine is.

Respectfully yours,

E.B. Rea,
AFRO Sports Staff Writer.
